DEFENDANT: NATHANIEL SMITH, IV
CASE NUMBER: 4:14-cr-00121-01 KGB

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall participate, under the guidance and supervision of the probation officer, in a substance abuse treatment program which may include testing, outpatient counseling, and residential treatment. Further, the defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of treatment.

The probation officer will provide state officials with all information required under any sexual predator and sexual offender notification and registration statutes and may direct the defendant to report to these agencies personally.

The defendant shall participate in sex offender treatment, under the guidance and supervision of the probation officer, and abide by the rules, requirements, and conditions of the treatment program, including submitting to polygraph testing to aid in treatment and the supervision process. The defendant is required to pay all or a part of the cost of treatment, based on his ability to pay as determined by the probation officer. Further, the defendant will abstain from the use of alcohol throughout the course of supervision and submit to testing.

The defendant shall not purchase, possess, subscribe, view, listen to, or use any media forms containing pornographic images or sexually oriented materials including but not limited to written, audio, visual depictions, such as pornographic books, magazines, literature, videos, CD's, DVD's digital media, or photographs. This includes materials containing "sexually explicit conduct" as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2256(2).

The defendant shall not own or use any computer or device (whether or not equipped with a modem or access to the Internet) at any location without first receiving written permission from the probation officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider; bulletin board system; gaming system, device, or console; online social networking activities; any public or private computer network system; cell phone; or any other remote device capable of Internet connection.

The defendant shall agree to the installation of computer monitoring software and hardware approved by the probation office and contribute to the computer monitoring cost based on the ability to pay as determined by the probation office. The defendant shall abide by all rules and requirements of the program and shall consent to unannounced examinations of all computer equipment internal and external storage devices which may include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s) and any internal and external peripherals and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection by the probation officer or probation service representative.

The defendant shall submit his person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to a search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3583(d).

The defendant shall disclose business and personal financial information upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant will not directly or indirectly contact the victim(s) by any means, including in person, by mail, electronically, telephonically, or via third parties. Further, the defendant will remain at least 100 yards from the victim(s) at all times. If any contact occurs, the defendant will immediately leave the area of contact and report the contact to the probation office.

The defendant will not associate with or have any contact with known convicted sex offenders unless in a therapeutic setting and approved by the probation office.

The defendant will not own, use, or have access to the services of any commercial mail receiving agency, nor will the defendant open or maintain a post office box or storage unit, unless approved by the U.S. Probation Office.
